Becklin - Zervas wedding

Shealyn Becklin and Josh Zervas were married in a private ceremony on April 17, 2009, followed by an outdoor reception held on June 27.

The bride's parents are Ron and Kerri Becklin of Fruitport Township.

Josh is the son of Mark and Jennifer Zervas and Laura Zervas, all of Spring Lake.

The couple will live in Spring Lake. • children had arranged for them to take a surprise flight over Fruitport as an anniversary present. Not many people knew this was something Cynda really wanted to do.

About 60 people were present for the celebration Sunday evening, August 23. Doug and Cynda were married September 5, 1969 at Broadway Baptist Church in Muskegon. The anniversary celebration had to be early to match the schedules of their four children. Kelly and Sarah and their three children, Matthew, Katherine, and Nathan came from Grand Ledge. Kym Davidson Kooy and her husband, Will, with their children Kira and Dominik flew in from Whidbey Island, Washington. Kacey and Sarah drove from Marquette, and Kris was the closest, at home.

The evening was perfect for the pre-sunset flight. A gentle breeze allowed them to drift lazily over their own home on Judson Road, across the northern edge of Spring Lake, past her Fruitport High School alma mater, over the storm-ravaged Village of Fruitport, and past Exit 5 on I-96 to a gentle landing in a convenient field on Fruitport Road 280 digital snapshots later. The chase crew was on hand to secure the vessel and welcome the air travelers back to earth with sparkling grape juice.

The couple observed, "We may be back down, but our feet have not touched the ground yet." •

Home heating credit filing deadline nears

(Submitted by Consumers Energy)

Consumers Energy reminds qualifying residents that September 30 is the deadline to file for a State of Michigan Home Heating Credit.

"Qualifying Michigan residents can get help paying their heating bills through a Michigan Home Heating Credit," said Debra Harmon, Consumers Energy's customer assistance coordinator. Information on how to apply for a credit is being provided with bills that Consumers Energy customers received in August. Information is also available at Consumers Energy's "Energy Answers" section on its website: www.consumersenergy.com.

Applicants do not need to file a state tax return to receive this credit.

The Home Heating Credit can be applied to all heating costs, including propane and purchased firewood.

The Home Heating Credit claim form (MI-1040CR-7) generally is available wherever other tax forms are provided. You also may get forms from the Michigan Department of Treasury at 1-800-367-6263, at the website

www.michigan.gov/treasury, at Consumers Energy bill payment offices, by calling the utility at 1-800-477-5050, or at www.consumersenergy.com. •

Doug and Cynda Davidson

Hot air balloon over Fruitport

(Submitted by the Davidson family)

Doug and Cynda Davidson of Fruitport Township were enjoying their potluck 40th anniversary celebration picnic their children hosted at Ryenga Park. While visiting with family and friends, Cynda noticed the Soaring High Balloon Adventures, LLC van pull into the parking lot with a hot air balloon on board. She observed, "I hope I get to see the balloon take off before we leave." That turned out to be an understatement. Their
