

FHS summa grads

Jeff Haase, principal of Fruitport High School, is pleased to recognize the summa cum laude graduates of the class of 2010. Each year, graduating seniors who have earned a grade point average of 3.80 or above for their high school career from ninth grade through the second trimester of their senior year are named summa cum laude.

Each student with details of his/her accomplishments is listed:

Noah Brandon Armstrong, son of Darryl and Karen Armstrong of Muskegon, will attend Aquinas College to study chemistry and mathematics. Noah was involved in his church youth group, National Honor Society, varsity tennis, varsity soccer, and varsity basketball. Noah also volunteered his time to the No More Sidelines Program.

Emily Ann Hoffman, daughter of Bruce and Debra Hoffman of Fruitport, will study business administration at the University of Michigan – Flint. Emily was a member of student council, National Honor Society, DECA and her church youth group. Emily was the varsity tennis team captain, junior varsity soccer team captain, a student aide at the Muskegon Area Intermediate School District, and worked part-time during her high school career.

Ian Robert Roup, son of Stephen and Joyce Roup of Spring Lake, will attend Grand Valley State University to become a secondary history teacher. Ian has earned the rank of Eagle Scout, was a member of National Honor Society, symphonic and marching bands, and volunteered for Relay for Life cancer walk.

Alisha Marie Schmitt, daughter of Steve and Lorie Schmitt of Muskegon, will attend Muskegon Community College in the fall and then transfer to the University of Michigan to study pre-med. Alisha participated in the blood drive for the American Red Cross, was a cheerleader, and worked part time throughout her high school career.

Ethan James Sang Bell, son of Lloyd III and Debra Bell of Fruitport, will pursue a career in chemical engineering at Michigan Technological University. Ethan is a member of the National Honor Society, varsity cross-country team, track team, and Science Olympiad. Ethan also volunteered his time for middle school track meets.

Ashley Louise Hulbert, daughter of Steve and Cheryl Hulbert of Fruitport, will attend Muskegon Community College and then transfer to Grand Valley State University to pursue a career as a physical therapist. Ashley was involved in varsity volleyball, and volunteered for the food pantry and Relay for Life cancer walk.

Stephanie Elaine Loss, daughter of Sherri Loss of Fruitport, will study English and creative writing at Alma College. Stephanie was a four-year member of colorguard/winterguard, a member of choir, student council, Business Professionals of America, and DECA. Stephanie was also a member of the drama club, performing in many plays

Jessica Ruth Shelton, daughter of Scott and Jill Shelton of Fruitport, will attend Muskegon Community College and then transfer to Grand Valley State University to study business law. Jessica participated in DECA, National Honor Society, softball, basketball, and volunteered at Edgewood Elementary, the Relay for Life cancer walk, and Aaron's Walk.

Mickelle Andrea Bradley, daughter of Kathy Bradley of Spring Lake, and Tracy Bradley of Sellersburg, Indiana, will attend Muskegon Community College transferring to Ferris State University to study engineering. Mickelle participated in National Honor Society, Math Club, the equestrian team, and Spanish Club.

Delaney Rae Mullenix, daughter of Richard and Laurie Mullenix of Fruitport, will attend Grand Valley State University at the Siedman College of Business to become a project manager. Delaney was a member of National Honor Society, a student council representative, a member of DECA and the varsity tennis team. She volunteered for Great Strides for Cystic Fibrosis, Relay for Life cancer walk, blood drives, and studied dance throughout her high school career.

April Lynn Sines, daughter of Randy and Jill Sines of Muskegon, will attend Muskegon Community College, transferring to Grand Valley State University to study psychology. April was a member of varsity golf, the equestrian team, volleyball, softball, and worked part time during her high school career.

Anna Louise Carmean, daughter of Mark and Jackie Carmean of Fruitport, will attend Muskegon Community College in the fall and then transfer to Western Michigan University to pursue a career in speech pathology and audiology. Anna was a member of National Honor Society, student council, varsity soccer, and varsity tennis. Anna also volunteered for her church daycare program and local soup kitchen.

Hillary Paige Mullenix, daughter of Richard and Laurie Mullenix of Fruitport, will study biomedical science at Western Michigan University. Hillary participated in National Honor Society, DECA, varsity tennis, and was a committee member for Friends and Family of Cystic Fibrosis. She volunteered for Great Strides for Cystic Fibrosis and Aaron's Walk. She also studied dance throughout her high school career.

Kaitlyn Christine Stoltzfus, daughter of Rocky and Jacki Stoltzfus of Muskegon, will study environmental science and conservation leadership at Lake Superior State University. Kaitlyn participated in National Honor Society, Science Olympiad, and track and field. She was a student leader in her church youth group and volunteered her time to charitable causes during her high school career.

her time to charitable causes during her high school career.

Nikole Ellen Dirkse, daughter of Craig Dirkse of Nunica and the late Diane Dirkse, will attend Grand Valley State University to pursue a career in the health field. Nikole participated in National Honor Society, tennis, and DECA. Nikole also volunteered her time in classrooms at Edgewood Elementary, volunteered at a local soup kitchen, and helped organize the Relay for Life cancer walk.

Ashley Renae Newmyer, daughter of Karen Newmyer of Muskegon and Ed Newmyer also of Muskegon, will attend Grand Valley State University to study chemistry or business. Ashley was a member of the varsity soccer team and volunteered for the Relay for Life cancer walk and the food pantry. Ashley also worked part-time during her high school career.

Dominic Andrew Taylor, son of Larry and Amy Taylor of Nunica, will attend Michigan State University to study pre-med. Dominic was a member of National Honor Society, volunteered at his church and the Big Brothers/Big Sisters organization, and also volunteered in a classroom at Edgewood Elementary.

Erin Marie Folkmier, daughter of David and Teresa Folkmier of Fruitport, will pursue a career in physical therapy while attending Grand Valley State University. Erin was a member of varsity track, cross country, a National Honor Society officer, student council executive board, and volunteered for the Relay for Life cancer walk.

Jena Justine Pier, daughter of John and Stephanie Pier of Fruitport, will pursue a career as a dental hygienist at Ferris State University. Jena participated in sideline cheerleading, varsity competitive cheer, DECA, and studied dance throughout her high school career.

Jordan Alexa Tejchma, daughter of Ray and Kelli Tejchma of Muskegon, will study diagnostic molecular science at Michigan State University. Jordan participated in National Honor Society, varsity basketball, DECA, Spanish Club, and track. Jordan also volunteered for Spread the Music Foundation and the Grand Haven Jaycees.

Elizabeth Hannah Hendricks, daughter of James and Joan Hendricks of Muskegon, will attend Northern Michigan University to study forensic biochemistry. Elizabeth participated in National Honor Society, student council, Fruitport Upstagers, and volunteered for the Relay for Life cancer walks.

Shelby Taylor Ray, daughter of Randy and Gay Maria Ray of Fruitport, will attend Lewis University of Illinois to study broadcasting. Shelby was co-captain of the varsity volleyball team, a member of National Honor Society, Youth Advisory Council, DECA, and volunteered her time at the People Center Food Pantry and Relay for Life cancer walk.

Andrew Huynh Tran, son of Thomas Tran and Michelle Huynh of Muskegon, will attend Western Michigan University to study computer science. Andrew as a member of National Honor Society, varsity football, varsity wrestling, volunteered his time at Edgewood Elementary, and was employed part time throughout his high school career.

continued on page 22