Marc Curtis

(Democratic candidate for Muskegon County Prosecutor)

My candidacy for the office of prosecutor is a culmination of my lifelong service to others, first as a veteran, and more recently as a prosecutor for nearly 10 years. I want to help Muskegon County continue to be a place we can all be proud to call home.

I believe in the principles of cooperation, fairness and justice. There will be equal treatment for everyone, under the law. We will restore the citizens' confidence in this office. Under my leadership, this office will refocus its commitment to victims rather than on its conviction rate.

My office will develop proactive approaches to the prevention and reduction of all crimes. Under my watch, this office will firmly and fairly address all who commit crime in Muskegon County. We cannot afford to have a prosecutor who waits for law enforcement to bring in the criminals so he can throw the book at them.

I have a solid track record of being a fair and just prosecutor. The prosecutor's office is about more than just one man. It is an office of the community. We will lean on the community for input and listen to our law enforcement partners.
