

Humy — Thompson wedding

Sonya Humy, daughter of Deborah and Dale Connell of Muskegon, and Cory Thompson, son of Glen and Sheila Thompson of Howell, were married June 22, 2013 at The Henderson Castle in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

The couple met while in college at Western Michigan University.

The bride is a graduate of Fruitport High School and is currently completing her pre-doctoral internship for a doctorate in Psychology.

The groom has his B.A. in computer information systems and is currently an I.T. Administrator.

They are currently residing in West Virginia. •

Field family celebrates great grandson's birth

Greg Adohay Field was born to Grand Haven residents Danielle Field and Rodney Mills on February 24, 2013. He weighed 8 pounds, 3 ounces.

His proud grandparents are former Fruitport resident Mathew Field of Georgia, and Nancy Umphrey of Fruitport. His great grandparents are Fred and Darlene Field of Fruitport.

Mother Danielle Field and grandfather Mathew Field welcomed Greg Field in February.

Calvary Christian Schools welcomes pro-life speaker

(Submitted by Calvary Christian Schools)

Calvary Christian Schools welcomes Rebecca Kiessling for a special assembly on October 29, 2013, from 2 to 2:45 p.m. Rebecca has been a pro-life speaker since 1995. She has shared her unique perspective/story about the issue of abortion to middle and high school students, universities, law schools, medical schools, and attorney conferences throughout the U.S., Canada, Ireland, United Kingdom, Germany, France, Austria and Mexico.

Rebecca was adopted shortly after birth. At age 18 she learned that she had been adopted — and, in fact, was conceived out of a brutal rape at knife-point by a serial rapist. Rebecca is thankful to be alive. She makes the case that all human life deserves protection.

Rebecca began to understand that whenever people identify themselves as being “pro-choice,” or whenever pro-life advocates add an exception in cases of rape, what that really translates into is, “I think your mother should have aborted you.” It was a sobering thought for Rebecca.

Guests are welcome to attend the assembly at no cost with a pass from the school office. Please contact the school office at (231) 865-2141 to reserve your pass at least 24 hours in advance of the event. •
