

Fruitport High School Senior Scholars

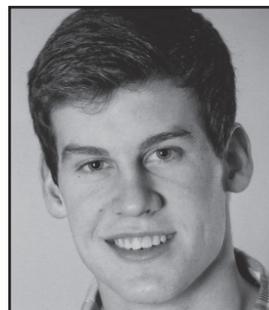

William Charles Chlopan, son of Bill and Linda Chlopan, will attend either the University of Michigan or Purdue University to pursue a career in aerospace engineering. William was active in marching band, FIRST Robotics, and National Honor Society.

Jacob Paul Clendenon, son of Edward and Brenda Clendenon and Lisa Clendenon and Rob Nichols, will attend the University of Michigan to pursue a career in chemical engineering. Jacob was active in Business Professionals of America, National Honor Society and student council.

Travis Charles Grimm, son of Dale and Elizabeth Grimm and Shawn and Bridget Zimmerman, will attend Goshen College. Travis was a member of National Honor Society. He also played three varsity sports: Baseball, basketball and football.

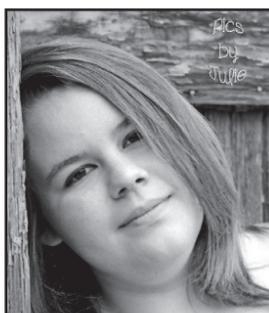

Jade Nicole Johnson, daughter of Shawn Tumele and Steven Johnson, will attend Muskegon Community College to pursue a career in dermatology. Jade was active in National Honor Society, volunteering weekly at a retirement community. She also participated in The Power — an anti-bullying group.

Alyssa Bernice Keith, daughter of Rodney and Mary Keith, will attend Grand Valley State University to pursue a human resource management degree. Alyssa was active in National Honor Society, Business Professionals of America, and The Power — an anti-bullying group.

Amy Lynn Mast, daughter of Bernerd and Debbie Mast, will attend Central Michigan University to pursue a degree in clinical psychology. Amy was active in marching band, National Honor Society and pep band.

Jillian Marie Mutchler, daughter of Patrick and Jenny Mutchler, will attend Michigan State University to study pre-med. Jillian was active in Nottawaseppi Huron Band of the Potawatomi, Science Olympiad and math club.

Sydney Nicole Schaub, daughter of Jeff and Laurie Schaub, will attend Baker College to pursue a career as a physical therapy assistant. Sydney was active in wind ensemble and National Honor Society.

Warren Randall Schmidt, son of Bill and Wendy Schmidt, will attend Grand Valley State University to pursue a mechanical engineering degree. Warren was active in Boy Scouts of America, reaching the rank of Eagle Scout. He also participated in FIRST Robotics and wind ensemble.

Janelle Lauren Vest, daughter of Joseph and Myriam Vest, will attend Union University in Tennessee to pursue marketing and music. Janelle was active in student council, National Honor Society and DECA.

Congratulations 2014 Graduates!

Fruitport Area Homeschool Graduates of 2014

Dan Bollweg likes music, movies, and hanging out with friends. He loves the Lord Jesus! No matter what he plans do next year or the following years he knows that He is sovereign in his life.

Katelyn Neville is attending Grand Valley State University in the fall for a degree in clinical exercise science with the intent of going on for a masters in occupational therapy.

Joe Thompson plans on attending Muskegon Community College in the fall while pursuing a possible career in politics. He wants to make a positive change in the country and continue to seek God's will for his life.

Ryan Curtis Freed is excited to be graduating high school. In the fall, he plans on attending Grace College in Winona Lake, Indiana to study Information Systems and potentially a minor in Graphic Design. Ryan has big plans in his life and is excited to see where God leads him.

Nathan Cale Wichman is planning on attending Grand Valley State University with an undeclared major. He is not sure what his life holds for him but is looking forward to and has great expectations for his future.

Andrew Sims is planning on attending Howard university for Aerospace Engineering and seeing where God leads him after that.

Luke Russel Strasler plans to get his gen eds at Muskegon Community College in the fall. During high school he participated in drama with Living Books Homeschool Theater, played basketball with the Shoreline Breakers, and was a member of Boy Scout Troop 3 where he earned his Eagle Scout rank.

Tayler Rustin is finally graduating after 13+ great years of Homeschooling. Until moving to Grand Haven recently, she didn't even know she could have such an awesome class to graduate with. This year she plans to take a break and prayerfully consider her next step in education.

Seth Binns has worked in Michigan and Colorado. He is not planning on attending college, but is considering trade school. He loves cars and anything with a motor. He is athletic and humorous, and enjoys traveling. He is the fifth child of thirteen and has always been home educated.

Fruitport Area Muskegon Catholic graduates

Kayleigh Schulte, daughter of Greg and Shiela Schulte, has gone to Gulfport, Mississippi for the past two years on mission trips. She is a member of the National Honor Society and is a 4-year varsity track athlete. She will attend Alma College in the fall where she will be majoring in biology, concentrating on a pre-med program in genetics.

Michael Valachovics, son of Roger and Shelly Valachovics, is a member of the National Honor Society and has participated in the spring musical for five years, acting as student director for the last three years. Michael is an Eagle Scout. He will be attending Muskegon Community College in the fall, transferring later to Michigan State University to major in Russian and Arabic translation.