

Homeschool Graduates of 2016

Mykenzie Anderson - "I love reading, drawing, and sleeping. In the fall I plan to attend M.C.C. with the goal of becoming a flight attendant. My dream is to travel the world."

Brielle Meyer - "I enjoy singing, performing and spending time with my family and friends. After graduation I plan to do an internship at Life Change Church while earning credits from Northpoint Bible College. After my internship I plan to pursue a degree as an English teacher and choir director."

Mary Marie Patterson - Mary began homeschooling in tenth grade, previously attending Montague Area Public Schools. She plans on pursuing an associate's degrees in Bible and Exercise Science, then completing her bachelor's degree in physical therapy at Grace Bible College. Mary enjoys playing sports and spending time with her awesome friends.

Abigail Beltran del Rio - "Hellooo, my name is Abby. I like watching movies, everything makeup, and shopping. I love Demi, Colleen, Cade, my dog Perczie and my cat Sunset. Also my family and friends, the rest of my pets, and every other animal that ever existed. Um now for my future, okay. I'm going to be a wedding planner so I'll be shadowing people and getting some degrees and stuff. I'm really excited. Bye :)"

Olivia Knapp - "Hey everyone! My name is Olivia Knapp, I have been homeschooled my whole life. Next Fall, I plan on attending MCC to get my general studies done, and after that, who knows what God has planned for me! In my free time I like playing guitar, ukulele and violin, and reading. I have been in theater since I was 11, and played 3 years of basketball."

Marissa Sierra Sellon - Marissa Sierra Sellon is the daughter of Jeff and Jennifer Sellon. She was homeschooled for three years and has started attending Muskegon Community College. She will continue to pursue her Associate's Degree after graduation. Her interests are sports, family, friends, and dance. Marissa may pursue a degree in Ballet.

Tyler Cramblet - "Hi I'm Tyler! Once I graduate I plan on continuing my education at Muskegon Community College until I get my associates degree, then transferring to Cornerstone University afterword for a degree in social work. I enjoy playing piano, spending time with family and friends, and working at Starbucks."

Michael Miracle - Michael has enjoyed playing soccer, basketball, bowling and attending career tech center during high school. He will be pursuing a degree in the criminal justice field at University of Michigan. His goal is to one day be part of the FBI and to help in the recovery of missing children.

Ashley Smutz - "I'm Ashley Smutz. I'm passionate about dance, working with special needs kids and serving at my local church. I am planning to continue my dance education and professional training. Psalm 32:8 'I will instruct you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you.'"

Sylvia DeBruyn - Sylvia has been happily homeschooled her whole life. In those short years she's discovered a passion for roadtrips, British television, and annoying everyone she loves. Although her dream job is to be a travel TV host, her plans for now are to attend MCC for basics before making the move to Virginia Commonwealth University for a BFA in graphic design.

Hayden Moore - Hayden completed CAD classes this past year and plans to pursue a technical career at MCC. He is looking forward to where God will lead him! He will spend the summer serving at Lake Ann Camp and enjoys hiking, history, running tech and spending time with friends and family.

Spencer Thompson - "I'm Spencer Thompson. When not working through school or on the job I enjoy getting coffee with friends, writing, arranging and recording music to better myself as a musician, or figuring out my future as well as what it has in store for me. In the fall I hope to attend Spring Arbor University. Although a major is not solidified, I want to work with people. Enriching lives in whatever ways I can."

Madeline Foster - Madeline Foster has been homeschooled most of her life, along with taking some MCC classes in high school. This fall, she will be attending Franciscan University of Steubenville where she plans to major in English or psychology with a minor in Theology. Jeremiah 29:11.

Hannah Gail Olson - Hannah began homeschooling in fourth grade and has been pursuing creative arts ever since. She is writing a thriller novel and is steadily playing 5-string bass on her worship team, as well as, mandolin and acoustic/electric guitar. Her favorite job is babysitting, and she loves working with people.

Congratulations Graduates!

Catholic Central

Brody Kieft, son of Barry Kieft and Beth Shook is graduating from Muskegon Catholic Central High School this June. He will be attending Elmhurst College in Chicago this upcoming fall where he will play football and study exercise science.

Jacob Robert Schulte, son of Greg and the late Shiela Schulte, will be attending Eastern Michigan University to pursue a career as a dentist. Jacob was an active member in National Honors society, National Arts Honors Society, track and football.

Connor Clark has had three offers for electrical apprenticeship, and he may attend MCC in the fall.

West Michigan Christian

Ella Gilson is the daughter of Mark and Laura Gilson of Fruitport. Ella played basketball, softball, soccer, volleyball, and ran cross country. She served as small group leader and sang in the choir. She is an avid reader and enjoys spending time with family and friends. Ella plans to attend either Cornerstone University or Spring Arbor to study Business.

Jordan Rhodes, participated in basketball for four years, baseball one year, three mission trips to Kenya, coffee bar and children's ministry at church, small group leader.

