

Attention Seafarers and Land Lubbers

By Denise Simcik
There is a new business in town offering libations, snacks, tobacco and transient mooring for boaters on Spring Lake.

The Waypoint Spirits and Docks in Fruitport serves the general public from the roadside or the water. It is conveniently located at 187 S Third Avenue, in the south gateway to our fair community. The new shop not only carries a wide variety of imported brews, wines and liqueur, but also a large selection of Michigan craft beers including gluten-free beer and snacks.

Waypoint offers a fine tobacco department and transient mooring for the discriminating boaters. Please stop in to make your selection and remember, it's at the south end of town between Norris Creek and the Pomona Park bandstand.

The phone number is 231-681-0413.

Village Groomer features professional groomers to style its furry clients. Village Groomer is located in Fruitport (next to McDonald's).

Customers can trust the caring staff who have decades of experience and are certified groomers. Owner, Valerie Durante is certified by two outstanding grooming schools. The Paragon School of Pet Grooming(Grandville, MI) and the New York School of Dog Grooming (New York, NY).

Our staff takes grooming standards to the next level and go the extra mile to ensure that your pup is in good hands. For each new pup, the groomer interviews the parent to understand their needs, and if there are any conditions like illness or age, that should be taken into consideration.
