

Fruitport High School Senior Scholars Class of 2018

Shaina May Jacqueline Gee, daughter of Karen Gee, will attend Muskegon Community College to pursue a career in architecture. Shaina was active in colorguard and winter guard.

Alysa Jo Leoné Giudici, daughter of Ted and Kendra Giudici, will attend Hiram College to pursue a career as an exotic zoo animal veterinarian. Alysa was active in cheerleading, National Honor Society, and karate.

Ellie June Herrick, daughter of Patrick and Ilene Herrick, will attend Muskegon Community College to pursue a nursing degree. Ellie was active in National Honor Society, student council, and her church worship team.

Kendra Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Doug and Denise Johnson, will attend Alma College to pursue a career in anesthesiology. Kendra was active in cross country, horseback riding, and track and field.

Blake Edward Jonassen, son of Michelle and Jason Jonassen, will attend Alma College to pursue a career as an astrophysicist. Blake was active in student council, FCS musical productions, and National Honor Society.

Madelynn Faith Kelly, daughter of Steve and Amy Kelly, will attend Grand Valley State University to pursue a career as an obstetrician/gynecologist. Madelynn was active in varsity cheerleading, student council, and S.A.L.T.

Zachary Alan Shane, son of David and Debra Shane, will attend Western Michigan University to pursue a career in engineering. Zachary was active in soccer and served as varsity captain. Zachary also volunteered for No More Sidelines.

Audrey Katherine Split, daughter of Dave and Jill Split, will attend Muskegon Community College to pursue a career in the medical field. Audrey was active in National Honor Society, student council, and Leo Club.

Kamren Logan VanOs, son of Kelly VanOs, will attend Michigan Technological University to pursue a career in software engineering. Kamren was active in cross country and track and field.

Mackenzie Scott Wahr, daughter of Scott and Tavra Wahr, will attend Muskegon Community College then transfer to Michigan Technological University to pursue a career in mechanical engineering. Mackenzie was active in student council, National Honor Society, and tennis.

Aurora Lyn Wilks, daughter of Fred and Anji Wilks, will attend Wentworth Institute of Technology to pursue a biomedical engineer career. Aurora was active in softball, S.A.L.T., and powerlifting.

Attn Fruitport Class of ‘83!

by Larry Pellet

Sept 29th at the Cloverville Eagles marks our 35th class reunion and we have a big event planned. The party kicks off at 3:00 with horseshoes, followed by dinner at 5, then door prizes and auction at 6:30 with DJ Adam Brandel.

Immediately following, ceremonies are open to the general public and Eagle non members for the electrifying 80’s band, Jaded 8. Be sure to wear your dance shoes!

For more information, visit our event on Facebook - Fruitport Class of 83 reunion - or call Larry Pellet at (231) 578-7736.

Invitations to be sent out shortly. You won’t want to miss this exciting gala!!

Congratulations Scholars!

Old Beach School off of Broadway (Near where Lowe’s is today) 1959. Submitted by Alan Lee (231) 788-3582.

Standing: Marsha Kitchka, Tom Coles, Bob Kikoni, Jill Clarke, Kim LeMieux, Randy Loftuss, Doug DeGraves, Jan Loring, Alan Lee, Paul Erpenbeck, Debi Meister

Middle: Kieth Giliver, Dennis French, Dan Fortenbacher, Buzz Howerda, Don French, Louann Jackman, Cindy Prissler, Steve Leverage, Randy Kuipers, Gregg Morrell, Dave Vander Weir

Sitting: ?, ?, Steve Moore, Sandy Upchurch, Joe Olovson, Lynn Falony, Louise Carlson, Mark Yorkson, Bob Sly, Craig Nelson?

Teacher: Mrs. Mol - her first year teaching.

This is part of the Fruitport High School graduating class of 1972.