

Shoreline Lions helped the community

Shoreline Lions have had another busy year. Cooking classes were provided at Kitchen 242 for kids from the Love Community Garden area, and also provided Power Produce at the Muskegon Farmers Market for seniors. They delivered food to 40 home-bound seniors. They also delivered 27 Thanksgiving baskets, and they delivered Christmas treat kits baked by the kids at 242.

They had a back-to-school party with school supplies in the fall. They furnished Love Community neighbors with fresh organic produce last summer, and gave movie passes to kids for Harbor Cinema. They brought a bus load of kids to the Fruitport Lions Old Fashioned Christmas in December and 2017 OLD FASHIONED DAYS.

A number of Fruitport Lions members volunteered for some of these events. Some of the funds for expenses were provided by the Fruitport Lions Club and the Community Foundation for Muskegon County, and Max McKee, owner of Mart Dock.

Brian Clincy - He grew up in the area, and instead of leaving he has continued to be a positive influence, not only to his kids, but the many others also.

Power of Produce at the Muskegon Farmers market running from August through mid September on Tuesdays from 10am - 1pm.

Kids Cooking Classes at Kitchen 242 with Chef Char Morse. Even the older teens got involved in baking cupcakes and cookies at holiday time to brighten lives of others.

Patricia Wright passed away in January 2018. She was a loyal volunteer with Shoreline Lions and Love Community Garden for years, helping organize the kids for outings. Always a smile and a nod. She will be deeply missed by all.
