2019 Peace Poster Contest

by Heidi Tice

Each year, Fruitport Middle School participates in the annual Lions Peace Poster Contest. Each Lions club is able to enter one poster to the district. The district will pick an overall winner that will go to the state competition which will go to the National and finally the international competition. This year Fruitport Middle School had 26 participates in the contest. The posters are judged by several Fruitport Lion’s Club members and the winners are as follows: 1st place Aris Ogden; 2nd place Tiffany Wang, 3rd place Hayden Zimer and Honorable Mention Alayna Metzger. This year’s theme was “The Journey to Peace”. Above is the 1st place poster. Fruitport Lions Club thanks all the talented Fruitport Middle School students for their hard work. Past year peace poster winners are displayed at Fruitport Charter Township on their wall of peace, come take a look. (To see all the winning posters for this year go to Fruitport Lions Club Official Facebook page or our website at fruitportlionsclub.com)
