

Calvary Christian Schools Graduate Daniel Beals wins two Emmy Awards and National Edward R Murrow Award

Calvary Christian Schools Class of 2010 graduate Daniel Beals was recently honored by winning two Emmy Awards. He then won the prestigious national Edward R. Murrow Award for his investigative journalistic effort “Digging Deeper: Dying on the Job”. Beals, who is the Newscast Producer for WPTA ABC21 in Fort Wayne, Indiana, was recognized for his proficient work in the categories of “Best Newscast”, “Best Investigative”, and “Education Schools” (for his solo work “Found on the Bus”). The Radio Television Digital News Association on Monday presented ABC21 and Daniel Beals with the National Edward R. Murrow Award for Investigative Reporting at a gala held at Gotham Hall in New York City.

Beals, who lives in Indiana with his wife Melissa, is no stranger to success. He has already won statewide Indiana newscasting awards in “Best Newscast”, “Best Investigative Report”, Best Producer”, and “Best Breaking Newscast”.

Daniel Beals said that his experiences at Calvary Christian in Fruitport were formative in helping him become so successful in the broadcasting world. Beals shared that “Mrs. Ferlaak and Mrs. Wilson taught me design and composition, photography, and accuracy...Calvary gave me the opportunity to film graduation every year, and English with Kara Paetschow taught College level essay writing with deep research which I use on a daily basis”.

Beals thinks that his biggest accomplishment so far is his work on the Investigative Report, “Dying on the Job”, that inspired a change in state law! Congratulations to CCS alumnus Daniel Beals for his Emmy Awards and national Edward R. Murrow Award!

Calvary Christian School Receives Michigan Heart Safe School Award

Calvary Christian School Representative Samantha Anhalt receives the Michigan Heart Safe School Award.

Calvary Christian School has met all the qualifications and has been recognized as a Michigan Heart Safe School. We have received a banner for this award, and we are proudly flying it in our Gym above our score-board. This award involves training our staff in CPR and AED awareness and placing AED’s in key locations in the school. We are proud to say that Calvary Christian Schools is a Michigan Heart Safe School!
